

THE INTERNATIONAL CENTRE FOR FAMILY LAW, POLICY, AND PRACTICE

in association with
THE UNIVERSITY OF WESTMINSTER

Gender, Inclusivity and Protecting the 21st Century Family

3-5 JULY 2019

Draft Conference Programme

9 July 2018

Conference Venue:
THE UNIVERSITY OF WESTMINSTER
Westminster Law School,
4-12 Little Titchfield Street,
London, W1W 7UW

UNIVERSITY OF WESTMINSTER

Patron: Baroness Hale of Richmond

www.icflpp.com

Conference Rapporteur:

Professor Stephen Gilmore King's College, London

Assistant Rapporteurs:

tbc

Student Ambassadors:

tbc

Wednesday 3rd July 2019

8.00	REGISTRATION
8.50	WELCOME Professor Marilyn Freeman, PhD, Co-Director, International Centre for Family Law, Policy and Practice
9.00	PLENARY SESSION
	Chair:
9.10	The Honourable Diana Bryant AO, QC A long time in the making – was it worth it? A discussion on the Guide to Good Practice on Article 13(1)(b) of the Child Abduction Convention
9.40	Professor Mark Henaghan, University of Otago, New Zealand Family Violence in New Zealand – Strategies for Prevention
10.10	Professor Linda Silberman, Martin Lipton Professor of Law, New York University School of Law The Hague Abduction Convention in the Era of “Me-Too”: Can it Survive?”
10.40	Anne-Marie Hutchinson, OBE, QC, Partner, Dawson Cornwell The Elderly, the forgotten family members
11.10	MORNING BREAK
11.30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	SESSION A Chair: tbc	SESSION B Chair: tbc	SESSION C Chair: tbc	SESSION D Chair: tbc	SESSION E Chair: tbc
Paper 1	Dr Lesley Allport, Vice Chair of the College of Mediators Relieving or refuelling family conflict? What part do on line resources play in Family Breakdown?	Barbara Connolly QC, Bedford Row Chambers Life and death medical issues – whose decisions?	Stephen Cullen and Kelly Powers, Attorneys, Miles and Stockbridge, Washington DC, USA The Protection of Families in Unfunded Hague Convention Proceedings in the USA	Associate Professor Ingrid Boone and Elodie Decorte, KU Leuven Faculty of Law, Belgium Donor Conception: From Anonymity to Openness	Karolina Zoi Andriakopoulou Attorney at Law at the Supreme Court of Greece Same-Sex Couples and Families in Greece
Paper 2	Associate Professor Susanne Burri, Utrecht School of Law, The Netherlands Assessing the (potential) impact of EU work-life balance policies, legislation and case law on families from a gender perspective	Marjolein van den Brink and Judith Hoeben, Utrecht School of Law, The Netherlands The exercise of the ‘right to gender identity’ of aliens legally residing in The Netherlands	Anita Guha, 7 Bedford Row Chambers, London The 21st century phenomena of stranded spouses	Dr. Adiva Sifris, Associate Professor, Monash University, Melbourne, Australia Who Ought to be the Parents? Commercial Surrogacy Arrangements in Australia, a Continuing Saga	Zenobia Du Toit, Attorney, Miller Du Toit Cloete, South Africa Transgender Issues in South Africa
Paper 3	Liz Picker, Barrister, Edmund Barton Chambers, Sydney, Australia The Australian Family Law System – A Time of Change	Mark Anderson, Barrister, Sydney, Australia Gender Dysphoria and Australian Caselaw	Dr Michelle Fernando, Senior Lecturer, School of Law, University of South Australia The Child’s Objection in Hague International Child Abduction Cases in Australia	Carmel van Niekerk, Lecturer, Department of Private Law, Faculty of Law, University of the Western Cape, South Africa Daddy or donor? The rights of known sperm donors in South Africa and the legal implications for single women	Philip Marcus, Judge (Retired), Jerusalem Family Court Parental Alienation is Child Maltreatment: What is the correct legal response?
1.00	LUNCH

2.00	PLENARY SESSION
	Chair: tbc
2.10	Philippe Lortie, First Secretary, The Permanent Bureau, The Hague Conference on Private International Law (tbc) Relocation
2.40	Professor Rollie Thompson, Dalhousie University, Halifax, Canada "Legislating about Relocation: Canada's Experience"
3.10	AFTERNOON BREAK
3.30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	SESSION A Chair: tbc	SESSION B Chair: tbc	SESSION C Chair: tbc	SESSION D Chair: tbc	SESSION E Chair: tbc
Paper 1	Deb Inder, Lawyer and PhD Candidate, University of Otago, New Zealand A New Paradigm for Children's Participation in Private Family Law Disputes	Stephen Page, Partner, Harrington Family Lawyers, Brisbane, Australia Surrogacy – Managing the Genie	Charlotte Mol, LL.M. – PhD Candidate, Utrecht Centre for European Research into Family Law (UCERF), Utrecht University, The Netherlands A qualitative content analysis of the ECtHR's case law on child participation in family law proceedings	Clare Renton, 29 Bedford Row Chambers International Access Arrangements	Dr. Ghislaine Lanteigne, Adjunct Professor, Osgoode Hall Law School, York University, Canada Who takes care of practitioners who care for families?
Paper 2	Debra K. Carter, Ph.D., Co-Founder & Clinical Director of The National Cooperative Parenting Center; Founder & CEO of Carter Psychology Center, Bradenton, FL James P. McHale, Ph.D., Director of the University of South Florida St. Petersburg Family Study Center and Executive Director of the USFSP Infant-Family Center at Johns Hopkins All Children's Hospital Building Child-Centered Solidarity among Diverse Families: A Focused Coparenting Consultation Intervention	Dr. Laura Carpaneto, University of Genoa, and Professor Maria Caterina Baruffi, University of Verona From the "Verona principles" to the Hague Project, passing through the European Union: a "model solution" for limping parentage	Melanie Kößler, lawyer and scientific consultant, International Social Service at the German Association for Public and Private Welfare Access to/possibilities of support provided by child and youth services for EU citizens staying in an EU Member State other than their home country	Fanni Murányi, PhD Candidate at ELTE University (Hungary) The parental child abduction cases from the perspective of the ombudsman and the court	Rebecca Stahl, lawyer for children, Children's Law Center of California, and Dr. Phil Stahl, forensic psychologist, Arizona At the Intersection of Trauma and Bias in the Evolving Family

Paper 3	Professor Anna Nylund and Professor Renee Thørnblad, University of Tromsø Including children in mediation – a transformation of mandatory child custody mediation in Norway	Sharon Shakargy, Lecturer, Faculty of Law, Hebrew University of Jerusalem Choice of Law for Surrogacy Agreements: Very Special Contracts Call for Very Special Rules	Roberta Ottonello, PhD Candidate in Political Science, University of Genoa The Protection of irregular migrant child against domestic violence, carelessness and mistreatments: the Italian case	Francesca Maoli, Contract Research Fellow in European Union Law, University of Genoa Enforcement of return orders under the 1980 Hague Convention: the role of the child's best interests in recent case law	Hannah Camplin, Senior Lecturer and Director of the Student Law Clinic University of Westminster Law School "A rose by any other name would smell as sweet": Time for a fresh approach to the naming of women and children in the modern family?
5.00	PLENARY SESSION
	Chair: tbc
5.10	Professor Judy Cashmore, Sydney Law School
5.35	Professor Julia Sloth-Nielsen, University of Western Cape, South Africa and Belinda Van Heerden, Retired Judge of the Supreme Court of Appeal, South Africa Child participation and access to justice in Africa: emerging themes
6.00	END OF DAY
Welcome reception [details tbc]. All are welcome to attend. 6.45–8.30pm

Thursday 4th July 2019

8.50	Welcome from Dr. Frances Burton, Co-Director, International Centre for Family Law, Policy and Practice
9.00	PLENARY SESSION
	Chair:
9.10	Professor Thalia Kruger, University of Antwerp and Dr. Laura Carpaneto, University of Genoa The EU regime on child abductions in perspective: new and old dilemmas
9.40	Dr Claire Fenton-Glynn, University of Cambridge Children's Rights and Religious Parents
10.10	Associate Professor Lisa Young, Murdoch University, Western Australia What message does Australian family law send: valuing fathering or fathering as an 'optional extra'?
10.40	Professor Marilyn Freeman, Principal Research Fellow, University of Westminster School of Law, and Associate Professor Nicola Taylor, Director, The Children's Issues Centre, University of Otago, New Zealand Outcomes for Objecting Children under the 1980 Hague Child Abduction Convention – The British Academy funded project, and where now?
11.10	MORNING BREAK
11.30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	SESSION A Chair: Professor Marielle Bruning, Leiden Law School	SESSION B Chair:	SESSION C Chair:	SESSION D Chair:	SESSION E Chair:
Paper 1	Annette C. Olland, Senior Judge International Family Law at the District Court of the Hague, The Netherlands. The Voice of the child and the guardian ad litem in 1980 Hague return procedures in The Netherlands	Assistant Professor Hanne Hartoft, Aalborg University, Denmark; Associate Professor Pernilla Leviner, University of Stockholm, Sweden; Professor Anna Nylund, University of Tromsø – The Arctic University of Norway; Postdoctoral researcher Hannele Tolonen, University of Helsinki, Finland Children's right to participation in the Nordic countries – between patriarchy and autonomy	Femke de Kievit LL.M., PhD Researcher at the Utrecht Centre for European Research into Family Law, University of Utrecht, The Netherlands Family Care in Ageing Societies	Jeanette Satink, Lecturer in Youth Law and Judge (part-time) District Court of The Hague, The Netherlands The criminal prosecution of severe child abuse cases in The Netherlands	Professor Peter de Cruz, Keele University Inter-Racial Placements and Adoption in The 21st Century Family: Inclusivity and the Child's Best Interests
Paper 2	Karin Verschueren, senior advisor for the Dutch Central Authority on International Children's Issues and Mathijs Storm, Senior legal expert and cross border mediator at the International Child Abduction Center Child abduction: the 'Dutch model' as best practice?		Associate Professor Susanne Burri and Assistant Professor Susanne Heeger-Hertter, Utrecht University Law School, The Netherlands Dutch and German policies and legal approaches to families with long-term care responsibilities	Dr. Kieran Walsh, Senior Lecturer, University of Portsmouth Risk, Domestic Abuse and Contact: Preliminary Findings of a Review of Court Practice	Josephine Ruvarashe Wazara, Legal practitioner, Zimbabwe The Story of the Shona Wife, her Marriage and Equality

Paper 3	Professor Marielle Bruning, Leiden Law School and Mindy Mosk, LL.M., Leiden Law School International Child Abduction: Lessons to be Learned from The Netherlands?	Shiran Reichenberg, PhD candidate Faculty of Law, Hebrew University, Jerusalem The Right to Participation and Care Proceedings in Youth Court – A Gender Perspective	Dr. Monica Navarro-Michel, University of Barcelona Shared custody and high parental conflict: when is it in the child's best interest?	Alison Cleland, Senior Lecturer and Director of Law Programmes and Khylee Quince, Senior Lecturer and Director of Maori and Pacific Advancement, AUT School of Law, Auckland, New Zealand Right to identity and family life: the new child protection laws in Aotearoa New Zealand	Avril Cryan, PhD Candidate, School of Law, University College, Cork, Ireland Legal Pluralism and Family Law: Is There a Role for Religious Tribunals?
1.00	LUNCH
2.00	PLENARY SESSION
	Chair:
2.10	Professor Ann Estin, Aliber Family Chair in Law, University of Iowa College of Law Cross-Border Cohabitation Conflicts
2.40	Professor Olga Khazova, Institute of State and Law of Russian Academy of Sciences Children of Tender years, Parental Equality and Principle 6 of the 1959 Declaration on the Rights of the Child
3.10	AFTERNOON BREAK
3.30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	SESSION A Chair:	SESSION B Chair:	SESSION C Chair:	SESSION D Chair:	SESSION E Chair:
Paper 1	Associate Professor Mirela Župan, Head of Department of Private International Law, J.J. Strossmayer University of Osijek, Croatia and Martina Drvntić, LL.M Parental child abduction as a trigger of multilayer procedures: interaction among the summary Hague Abduction Convention action and a custody procedure	Dr Megan Gollop, Senior Research Fellow, Children's Issues Centre, University of Otago, Dunedin, New Zealand Evaluating New Zealand's 2014 Family Law Reforms: Parents' Perspectives	Lucy Crompton, Manchester Metropolitan University Compensation: an alternative paradigm	Vandana Shah, Divorce Lawyer, Author, India Women's Rights in Divorce in India: Stigma and Gender Bias	Dr. Stephanie Rap, Assistant Professor of Children's Rights, Department of Child Law, Leiden University The Right to effective participation of refugee children: a critical children's rights perspective
Paper 2	Onyója Momoh, Doctoral Researcher, Centre for Private International Law, University of Aberdeen Domestic and Family Violence in the Context of the 1980 Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction	Associate Professor Nicola Taylor, Children's Issues Centre, University of Otago, New Zealand Evaluating New Zealand's 2014 Family Law Reforms: Family Justice Professionals' Perspectives	Dr. Máire Ní Shúilleabháin, Assistant Professor, University College Dublin Marriage Equality: the Unresolved Cross-Border Dimension	Rachael Kelsey, Solicitor, Scotland and London Transgender children and young people and the State – a view from Scotland	Tine Van Hof, University of Antwerp, Francesca Maoli, and Giovanni Sciacaluga, University of Genoa-The Voice Project The Best Interests of the Child in International Child Abduction Proceedings – The Voice Project

Paper 3	Simona Florescu, PhD candidate, Leiden Law School, Child Law Department The impact of immigration considerations on child abduction proceedings	Lalisa Froeder Dittrich, Deputy Head of the Central Authority for International Child Abduction – Ministry of Justice of Brazil You have my word... But is it enough? Recognition and Enforcement of Private Agreements in Cross-Border Family Disputes Involving Children	Randall B. Wilhite, lawyer and Adjunct Professor of Law, University of Texas School of Law, Austin, Texas Systemic, Cultural and Organized Gender Inequality in Matrimonial Property Regimes Around the Globe	Anjuli Leila Maistry, Senior Attorney, Centre for Child Law (based at University of Pretoria) Transgender children and boarding schools: at what point will we fully include transgender children into society	Associate Professor Katine Poitras, Department of Psychology, University of Quebec at Trois-Rivieres; Professor Nicholas Bala, Queen's University, Ontario, and Professor Rachel Birnbaum, King's University College, Ontario What Family Cases End Up in a Trial?
5.00	PLENARY SESSION
	Chair:
5.10	Dr. Rob George, Reader in Family Law, University College London Are Inherent Jurisdictions Still Needed in Family Law?
5.35	END OF DAY
House of Lords' Dinner, sponsored by Baroness Hale, President of the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom 7pm – 10.30pm. Please arrive by 6.45pm to allow sufficient time to clear security systems. Delegates must bring their invitations and photo ID with them to the House of Lords. Dress Code: Lounge suit or smart-casual dress. Black tie is not required. (Men require jacket and tie, women smart casual, but no jeans, denim or similar.)

Friday 5th July 2019

8.50	Welcome from Dr. Frances Burton, Co-Director, International Centre for Family Law, Policy and Practice
9.00	PLENARY SESSION
	Chair:
9.10	Sarah Calvert PhD, Clinical Psychologist Hague, High Conflict, Alienation. Abduction: what do the similarities in all these types of cases tell us about parental conflict in the 21st Century
9.40	Professor Dr. Juris Trude Haugli, University of Tromsø – the Arctic University of Norway Children's Constitutional Rights in the Nordic Countries
10.10	Professor Wendy Schrama, Utrecht Centre for European Research into Family Law Belonging of children after divorce: what can the law do?
10.40	The Honourable Madam Justice Bebe Chu, Principal Family Court Judge, Hong Kong and Her Honour Judge Sharon D. Melloy, Family Court, Hong Kong, (tbc) Gender and surrogacy issues in Hong Kong
11.10	MORNING BREAK
11.30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	SESSION A Chair:	SESSION B Chair:	SESSION C Chair:	SESSION D Chair:	SESSION E Chair:
Paper 1	Linda D. Elrod Richard S. Righter Distinguished Professor of Law and Director, Children and Family Law Center, Washburn University School of Law, Topeka, Kansas, USA; Melissa A. Kucinski, Lawyer, Washington, D.C., USA; Andreas Hanke, Lawyer, Berlin, Germany Hearing the Voices of Children: Requiring Child's Counsel for International Cases	Ranjit Malhotra, Lawyer, Chandigarh, India and Gayatri Malhotra, Jindal Global University, India Is Privacy only for the privileged? Examining Reproductive Autonomy and Family Life of Prisoners through the lens of Puttaswamy	Mirjam Sombroek-Van Doorn, Director of the Meijers Research Institute and Graduate School of the Leiden Law School, and Machteld Vonk, Assistant Professor and Research Fellow of Child and Family Law, Leiden University A children's rights perspective on (mandatory) mental health education in schools	Astrid Martalas, Psychologist, South Africa Ten years of parenting coordination in South Africa – where to from here?	Colin Rogerson, Dawson Cornwell and Charlotte Baker, Barrister at 4 Paper Buildings Transgender Parents, Discriminatory Practices and the Family Court in England & Wales
Paper 2		Olanike Adelakun-Odewale, Doctoral Candidate, Faculty of Law, University of Pretoria, Instructor, American University of Nigeria Investigating the Application of Subsidiarity Principle in Intercountry Adoption in Nigeria	Soraya Bou-Sfia, PhD researcher, Utrecht Centre for European Research into Family Law Diversity, inclusion and belonging: the (need for) protection of children's background	Felicity Bass, FLiP Faculty Limited Designing Parenting Coordination for England and Wales: Innovation in process design for a new model in this jurisdiction	Claire Houston, Assistant Professor, Faculty of Law, Western University, Ontario, Canada Respecting and Protecting Transgender Children in Canada's Family Courts
Paper 3		Dr. Christina Jeppesen de Boer and Professor Wendy Schrama, Utrecht University, UCERF (Utrecht Centre for European Research into Family Law) Compliance with post-divorce agreements on contact – what are the reasons for non-compliance?	Judge Grant Riethmuller, Federal Circuit Court of Australia and Kathryn St. John, University College, London The effectiveness of private and public mediation in resolving family property disputes	Craig Schneider, Attorney and Mediator Dispute Resolution for the 21st Century Family	Marjolein van den Brink, Utrecht University School of Law, and Peter Dunne, University of Bristol Protecting Gender and Sex Diversity? Exploring Trans and Intersex Equality Frameworks in 21st Century Europe

1.00	LUNCH
2.00	PLENARY SESSION
	Chair:
2.10	Dr. Rachel Birnbaum King's University College, Ontario and Professor Nicholas Bala, Queen's University, Ontario The Crisis of Access to Family Justice: Changing How Legal Services Are Provided
2.40	Dr. Frances Burton, Senior Lecturer in Law, University of Buckingham Access to Justice in England and Wales: Modernisation A Mixed Blessing?
3.10	AFTERNOON BREAK
3.30	PARALLEL SESSIONS
	SESSION A Chair:	SESSION B Chair:	SESSION C Chair:	SESSION D Chair:	SESSION E Chair:	SESSION F Chair:
Paper 1	Ivo Pieters and Machteld Vonk, Leiden University Law School Guardian ad litem in parentage cases: what role should their best interests evaluation play in multi-parenthood?	Elena Falletti, Assistant Professor in Private Comparative Law at Carlo Cattaneo University, Castellanza (VA), Italy Religious roots of the duty of marital fidelity and the evolution of Italian family law	Pietro Sanna, PhD Candidate, University of Genoa Fragmentation of Conflict of Law in Europe: Could Protocol No 16 to the European Convention on Human Rights ensure Consistency in Family Law Matters?	Sally Nicholes, Lawyer, Melbourne, Australia Shared Care: A careless approach	Dr. Jet Tigchelaar, Yasemin Yildiz (LLM) and Prof. Wendy Schrama, Utrecht Centre for European Research into Family Law Protecting all 21st century families: a comparison of informal marriages, informal cohabitation and marriage	Pamela Scriven QC and Andrea Watts, 1 King's Bench Walk Chambers Protection from FGM: Is the law in England and Wales adequate?
Paper 2	Ruth Ballantyne, Professional Practice Fellow, University of Otago, Faculty of Law Legal Parentage and Birth Certificates in Aotearoa New Zealand: Moving Towards a More Inclusive Model	Professor Thomas Oldham, John H. Freeman Professor of Law, University of Houston Law Center Faculty The Current Confusion in the U.S. Regarding Standards for the Award of Spousal Support after Divorce	Ronaldah Lerato Karabo Ozah, Deputy Director, Centre for Child Law, University of Pretoria No corporal punishment of a child is reasonable: the removal of the defence of reasonable chastisement in South Africa	Robert A. Simon, forensic psychologist, California, and The Honourable Dianna Gould-Saltman, Los Angeles, USA Gender and Child Custody: Is that Even a Thing in the Twenty First Century?	Widia Naseva Tuslian, Department of Law and Society, Faculty of Law of University of Indonesia Elimination of Culture Based Discrimination against Women in Indonesia	Tzipi Yagelnik-Frisktik, PhD, Bar-Ilan University, Israel Economic Domestic Violence against Women in Private Law, Family Law and Criminal Law
Paper 3	Dr. Latiefa Manie, University of Western Cape Gender neutrality in relocation disputes in South Africa	Julia Anderssen, Advocate, South Africa How possible is it in South African courts to attack offensive provisions in an antenuptial contract?	Sarah Atkins, Senior Teaching Fellow, School of Law, University of Portsmouth 'Calais Jungle' family reunifications: a human rights analysis of UK age assessment methods and gender bias	Anil Malhotra, Lawyer, Chandigarh, India Right of the Removed Child	Professor Lea Mwambene, Faculty of Law, University of Western Cape Access to justice, gender, and customary laws	Stephen Cullen and Kelly Powers, Attorneys, Miles and Stockbridge, Washington DC, USA and Simon Craddock, Partner, Brethertons A comparative analysis of how England and Wales, and The United States, deal with domestic violence in the family courts

5.00	PLENARY SESSION
	Chair:
5.10	Justice Victoria Bennett Hearing the Voice of the Child (tbc)
5.40	Final Remarks: Professor Marilyn Freeman, PhD, Co-Director, International Centre for Family Law, Policy and Practice
5.50	CLOSE OF CONFERENCE
Farewell supper reception in gardens of Inns of Court (details tbc) 7.30pm reception

Special thanks to our conference sponsors:

MILES & STOCKBRIDGE P.C.

PENNINGTONS MANCHES

Four Paper Buildings

CRS
Charles Russell
Speechlys

HARCOURT
CHAMBERS
LONDON OXFORD

1KBW

Dawson Cornwell

1GC|Family Law

Miller Du Toit Cloete

Miles and Partners Solicitors

Thanks are expressed to the following for their much appreciated support:

The Westminster Law School

Associate Professor Nicola Taylor,
University of Otago

Professor Stephen Gilmore,
King's College London

Patron: Baroness Hale of Richmond

International Centre for Family Law, Policy and Practice

Egale 1, 80 St. Abans Road, Watford,
Herts, WD1 1DL, United Kingdom

Company no. 8945331

A Not For Profit Company Limited by Guarantee

www.iclfp.com