

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
FIRENZE

DSG
DIPARTIMENTO DI
SCIENZE GIURIDICHE

Florence, 3-4 December 2018

e-NACT TRANSNATIONAL TRAINING WORKSHOP

The Best Interests of the Child in the Context of Transnational Movements: National Courts and the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights

Organised by the University of Florence (Department of Legal Sciences) in the framework of the European project “E- Learning National Active Charter Training” (E-NACT), coordinated by the Centre for Judicial Cooperation of the European University Institute and co-funded by the European Commission under the “Fundamental Rights and Citizenship” Programme

Venue: Villa Ruspoli, Piazza della Indipendenza 9, Firenze

■ PROGRAMME

Day 1 - 3 December

8.30 Registration

9.00 Welcome & Introduction

9.30 SESSION I - Child Protection in the Context of EU Family Reunification Law and Union Citizenship

Chair: Prof. Adelina Adinolfi | University of Florence

Dr. Sara Migliorini | University of Lausanne

Child Protection under Directive 2004/38/EC and Directive 2003/86/EC

Prof. Eleanor Spaventa | Bocconi University

The Protection of “Static” Minors Who are EU Citizens: The Zambrano Judgement and its Progeny

Dr. Claire Bright | European University Institute

The Implications of Brexit on Children Protection

Discussion

11.00 Coffee break

11.15 First Working Group Session – Case Study

- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.30 SESSION II - Child Protection in the Context of EU Immigration and Asylum Law
Chair: Prof. Chiara Favilli | University of Florence
- Dr. Daniela Vitiello | University of Florence
Dublin cooperation and child protection before the ECJ and national courts
Dr. Cesare Pitea | University of Parma
The protection of refugee and migrant children before the ECtHR: substantive aspects
- Discussion
- 16.15 Coffee break
- 16.30 Second Working Group Session – Case Study
- 18.30 End of Day 1

Day 2 - 4 December

- 09.00 SESSION III – Shaping the Best Interests of the Child: Sharing Practices on the Use of International and European Sources and Case-law
- Discussion based on the answers provided by the participants to a questionnaire circulated in advance
- Introduction: Dr. Deborah Russo | University of Florence
The role of public international law sources in the assessment of the best interests of the child
- Moderator: Dr. Nicole Lazzerini | University of Florence
- 11.15 FINAL ROUND TABLE - Child Protection in the Context of Migration: The Private International Law Dimension
- Chair: Prof. Stefania Bariatti | University of Milan
- Prof. Costanza Honorati | University of Milano- Bicocca
Children on the Move: Interactions between the Brussels IIa and the Dublin III Regulation
- Prof. Giulia Rossolillo | University of Pavia
Brussels IIa Recast (with special regard to children protection)
- Prof. Giacomo Biagioni | University of Cagliari
EU Charter and Migrant Children: Private International Law Issues
- Dr. Ornella Feraci | University of Siena
The Role of the 1996 Hague Convention in the Protection of Migrant Children
- Discussion
Concluding remarks: Prof. Stefania Bariatti | University of Milan
- 13.30 Lunch